GUIDE PRICES

An auction guide price is an indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price, or range of guide prices, is agreed with the seller at the start of marketing.

The reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the pre-auction marketing period. This guide price can be shown either as a minimum and maximum guide range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve price) would fall or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall.

Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

Please keep in contact with us and a close eye on our website for guide price changes.

LEGAL PACKS

Legal packs for individual properties are usually available about 2 – 3 weeks before the auction.

These generally contain:

- Special Conditions of Sale.
- Draft Land Registry transfer documents and plans.
- Copy Land Registry documents and plans.
- A Local Authority Search.
- Replies to general pre-contract enquiries.

And may also contain other documents relevant to the property.

Legal Packs will either be available on request or to download free of charge from the Property Auction section of our website.

If sellers or their solicitors require paper copies of any legal pack then a minimum charge of £30 (including VAT) will apply.

In some circumstances sellers solicitors may insist on sending out paper copies of legal packs direct for which they may make their own charge.

RESERVE PRICE

This is the seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer is instructed not to sell.

The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer.

Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

Please keep in touch with us during the lead up to the auction and keep an eye on our website.
